

ALEXI PANOS

Alexi is from Hayden, Idaho. He grew up skiing for Schweitzer Alpine Racing School (SARS) in the Pacific Northwest Ski Division and raced on the FIS circuit until he was 19 years old. Now off at college, Alexi studies Chemical Engineering at Montana State University. He was awarded the Presidential Scholarship for the MSU Honors College. He hopes to one day complete an MD-PhD program in Biomedical Engineering and specialize in orthopedics. He currently works in a biochemistry lab as an undergraduate researcher. In the winters, Alexi also works as an alpine ski coach for Bridger Ski Foundation and has been working towards eventually become a Technical Delegate. He is a certified referee and a level 100 coach. In his spare time, Alexi enjoys skiing, mountain biking, hiking and playing guitar.
