

STUART LARSON

Stuart grew up in the Seattle, WA area. Starting at a very young age he stayed very active with organized sports; Football, Wrestling, Track and Field, Baseball, and Basketball to name a few. He was also very busy with skiing, hiking, and mountaineering with his siblings and brother-in-law on every other free moment. His passion for the outdoors and especially skiing remains today. Stuart passed his passion onto his two sons, Tyler and Kyle. Both grew up ski racing with the Pacific Northwest Ski Association Division and had successful careers (Kyle is still competing with Steven Pass Alpine Club). Stuart has played an active role in supporting the Pacific Northwest Division Ski Association Division since 1990 with volunteer work at races. He is Chief of Race for Steven Pass Alpine Club where his wife, Sara has coached for more than 25 years.
