

TERESA CRAVENS

A Pacific Northwest native, Teresa grew up on Mercer Island, Washington and skiing at Crystal Mountain. After working on boats in Alaska, studying in France, and graduating from the University of Washington, Teresa moved to Bend, OR.

In Central Oregon, Teresa enjoys an outdoor lifestyle whilst pursuing her entrepreneurial professional interests.

Having coached Nordic for years with MBSEF and volunteering too many hours to count, Teresa continues to be very involved with MBSEF as a Race Administrator.

Recently retired, Teresa enjoys her time with her recently retired husband Rob who is a member of the Pacific Northwest Ski Division Board.

Their son, Minam grew up ski racing with MBSEF Alpine and was awarded the Dean Palmer award.
