

RENA LUNAK

Rena Lunak is affiliated with Stevens Pass Alpine Club (SPAC) in Washington where her son Sawyer is an athlete.

Rena currently holds the SPAC Board Vice President position and is in the second year of a three-year term. Rena was also recently certified for Chief of Timing and Calculations.

When not volunteering, Rena is a Global Communications executive at Amazon, managing more than 30 team members around the world and lives in Shoreline, WA where she also volunteers as the Building and Remodel Chair for her neighborhood HOA.

Rena grew up in Bellingham, WA and learned to ski at Mt. Baker. After moving to Seattle with her family, her son was smitten by the gate training he observed from a chair lift ride. By age 9, Sawyer was all-in on SPAC and has been with the program for 8 years (now a second year U16).

Rena loves to Nordic and Alpine ski, mountain bike, and will never turn down a wine tasting.
