

SCOTT MACARTNEY

A native of Seattle and a ski racer at Crystal Mountain, Scott was a member of the U.S. Ski Team from 1998 to 2010.

Scott is a two-time Olympian with a passion for leading teams, building organizations and helping people.

Scott pivoted his experience as an athlete and executive director into the financial world, an interest of his since college at Dartmouth College in New Hampshire. He is now Vice President in Investment Securities at Martin Nelson & Co.

Scott has provided leadership in various roles throughout his career and has experience working with the boards of US Ski and Snowboard and World Cup Dreams Foundation, continuing to this day.

Scott is married and has two young children (who will continue the family legacy of ski racing at Crystal Mountain).